

CHACRA
PATAGONIA ~ RIO NEGRO

Wine Spectator

February 2016

OUR EDITORS PICK THEIR FAVORITE
By Kim Marcus

WS Rating 91 points

$15-$30

Bodega Chacra Pinot Noir Patagonia Barda 2014

91 | $30 | 3,000 cases imported

In 2004, Italy's Piero Incisa della Rocchetta purchased the first vineyards for Bodega Chacra, which lies in the valley of the Río Negro river of Patagonia, midway between the Andes and the Atlantic. This Pinot Noir, aged 12 months in French oak, delivers pure, mineral and powerful red fruit flavors.